CELEBRATION TIME!—JUNE 8, 2024—The 125th Anniversary of St. Boniface Church will be celebrated in conjunction with the Spring Shindig on June 8th. Archbishop Lucas will be here to celebrate the Mass, there will be a parish pork loin supper following at the Stuart Auditorium with silent auction items, basket raffles and the homemade Country 'Cash & Carry' Store (food items only!) that evening. Plan to bring your homemade, baked, or canned goodies priced and ready to sell! We will also be having a MAGIC SHOW for all ages! We are accepting monetary donations to help defray the costs of the food and other supplies/items that are needed. Make checks payable to St. Boniface Church. Contact Jan Kunz @ 340-2303 with questions or for more information. The Silent Auction items will include items from St. Boniface Church: church pew benches, original organ pipe floral arrangements, kneeler/seats, stained-glass windows. Also, NE Football tickets, detailing services and more. Plan to attend and help celebrate 125 years of St. Boniface!

EMHC/LECTOR TRAINING—If you are interested in becoming an EMHC or lector for our parish, contact Jan Kunz @ 340-2303 to get the information. The training is online and all instructions are included on the form. Anyone wishing to be an EMHC or lector must be: fully initiated, practicing Catholics, in good standing, who have a parish affiliation, demonstrated responsibility and commitment to service, and are at least a rising junior in high school.

SPIRITUALITY DAY—JUNE 11, 2024—from 9am—3pm in Norfolk at Sacred Heart Parish Center. The event will feature music group—'Heavenly Hens', speaker—Christa Pichler, lunch, and Mass. RSVP with $20. by June 1 to Kim Estes, 87671 467th Ave., Stuart, NE 68780 or call Kim—402.340.2866.

BINGO CARDS FOR KIDS—Bingo cards are available in the entryway of the church for kids to play throughout the summer. Get a Bingo or a Blackout (even better!) and return the card to the DOM office to pick a prize. Play all summer long! New cards will be out at the beginning of each month! Keep your faith alive and active this summer!

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED!—Update on signing the prolife ballot initiative "Protect Women and Children". Be sure to read the article in our June parish newsletter for clarification on why Nebraska's three Bishops approve signing it. Petition circulators are needed to collect signatures in O'Neill, Atkinson and Stuart. Amelia, Spencer, Butte, and Lynch are covered. Required training for petition circulators will be offered May 29 at 8 pm at Spencer St. Mary's, but additional trainings can be scheduled by calling Mary Haun (402-340-2696) and Jeanie Miller (402-340-5087). We only have June to collect over 120,000 signatures from registered voters. Please call these ladies ASAP and volunteer to help. Use the power of your pen to protect women and children in Nebraska!!

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER STARMAN—

Dear Parishioners and Friends of the Catholic Parishes of Western Holt and Boyd Counties,

Go only “to the lost sheep of the house of Israel” – this was Jesus’s firm instruction to the disciples when he first sent them out on mission (Matt 10:6). Later when a Canaanite woman pleaded with Jesus to heal her daughter, he again declared that he “was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel” (Matt 14:5). His concern was to feed his own people (15:26) and he did not see her as one of them. It seems that her respectful and insistent response in word and gesture, however, helped trigger a profound change in Jesus’s understanding of the scope of his mission. At the end of the gospel, he commissions his disciples to go everywhere, making disciples of all nations (28:19).

A similarly profound shift occurred in the life of the apostle Paul, who went from persecuting Christians who were reinterpreting the parameters of the family of God to being the most ardent proponent of inclusion of all. By the time Paul writes to the community in Rome in the late 60’s, he is able to say that all people who are led by the Spirit are “children of God.” This same expression had been used by the Israelites (Deut. 14:1). Paul presses the metaphor further, insisting that all these varied children of God are not just appendages to the family but are full and true heirs. Being a full member and an heir means inheriting the pattern of life set by Jesus: a life of loving service that is costly but that ends in glorious transformation.

The relationship between parents and children who are full heirs is only one metaphor by which to speak of the mysterious love of the Trinity. Saint Augustine liked to speak of the three persons as “Lover, Beloved and Love. St. Hildegard of Bingen favored “Fire, Burning, and Flashing Forth.” One might name them Eternal Giver, Receiver, and Outburst of Joy.” There is no limit to the ways we can speak of the profound mystery of the Three-in-One. The three persons are a communion of love that interweave each other in endless patterns of saving activity.

The first reading this weekend (Deut 4:32-34,39-40) assures us that the mystery of the divine love is not something that remains nebulous and intangible. Rather, the saving activity of God is concrete and visible both in great moments and in the routines of everyday life. Jesus’s promise, “I am with you always” (Matt 28:20), assures all God’s Spirit-led children in every race and nation that the divine presence continues to create, save, and vivify whenever we allow it free rein to draw us into the Trinity’s ever-expanding circles of love.

On this feast of the Holy Trinity, talk with Jesus about the ways you see “outsiders.” What could turn your heart to see them more truly as God’s beloved children? Also consider what names capture best for you the ever-expanding communion of love that is the Trinity. Try out a new name for the Three-in-One in your prayers!

Have a safe Memorial Day Holiday!

Ad multos annos!
