MINISTRY OF PRAISE—A WORD FROM DEACON FILIPS

Greetings Fellow Prayer Warriors!

We recently heard the gospel reading about the man who was thrown out of the wedding feast because he didn't have a white wedding garment on. It never seemed fair to me that the king threw the man out for not wearing a wedding garment, but we must understand that free wedding garments were being handed out at the door, and this man refused the free garment.

The free garment is white and represents saving grace, especially in the sacraments. The free garment is the white baptismal gown. It is the white dress and shirt at first communion and confirmation. It is the spotless white soul we have after a good confession; it is the white wedding dress. It is the white vestments that clergy wear when they are ordained. It is the white funeral pall that will be placed on our casket the day of our funeral. The free garment is the grace of salvation, and the sacraments that give that grace, which are offered freely to all of us. This man rejected the grace that would have let him into heaven.

We know that the king represents God the Father, the bridegroom represents God the Son, but who is the bride? This gospel does not say, but if you look in the Book of Revelation, in chapter 19 we read about the wedding feast of the Lamb, which also uses imagery of a wedding feast when Jesus marries His bride. So, who is the bride in the wedding feast? In the Wedding Feast of the Lamb, we learn that we are the bride! The church! That is what happens in heaven. We "marry" (in a very profound manner of speaking) the Lamb, the Son, Jesus!

We cannot earn our way into the wedding feast with good works, but we do have work to do and choices to make. First, we need to decide to come to the wedding feast of heaven. We need to accept the free offer of the wedding garment of salvation in the sacraments. We also need to become Jesus' friend to be joined with Him and we need to repent of anything that stains our wedding garment so He can wash it clean again if necessary.

Jesus was talking to the Jews of His time, but the context of scripture changes with the audience. It is now 2000 years later, and we are not Jewish Pharisees, but today Jesus is still talking to us. Today, we westerners are the first group who have been invited to the wedding feast, God says to us that everything is ready; come to the feast. But most of us ignore the invitation and go away, one to his farm, another to his business.

This month let's continue to pray for our church, that the members of the synod in Rome are obedient to God's will. Following is a selection from my book on the Mass. For more information or orders go to www.spiritualworkspress.com

Why do I have to go to Mass?

Why are we obligated to go to Mass? Why does a husband kiss his wife? If he doesn't, there is something wrong with the marriage. If we have been away from someone we love for a week and we don't miss him or her, or if we don't look forward to going back to Mass after a week, we do not have the relationship we should. If we work on it, however, we can develop that relationship.

Imagine someone was giving away a million dollars to everyone who went to Mass. Actually, it is better than that. God is giving away everything, His Son.

The Catholic Church is very specific about the obligation of attendance at Sunday Mass and on Holy Days. This is one of God's Commandments. He did this for our good, not for His. He knew that if we went to Mass, we would receive grace to improve our relationship with Him and conform ourselves to Him so we could join with Him in heaven. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin (CCC 2181).

If this seems harsh, imagine you are in a loving relationship with someone, and they refuse to see you or spend time with you. Would there be something wrong with that relationship? If you were God in that relationship, would you invite this person to spend eternity in heaven with you after that rejection? The relationship has been ruptured and can only be healed by repentance and absolution in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Everyone wants to go to heaven, but no one wants to die to get there. If we go to Mass and get involved, then we are in heaven here on earth! We are in the presence of God and His love. Angels and our deceased loved ones surround us, worshiping God with us (see CCC 1137-1139). That is a foretaste of what happens in heaven! Of course, it will all be more obvious to us after we die.

Until next month . . . Deacon Roger Filips

NOVEMBER—THE MONTH DEVOTED TO THE SOULS IN PURGATORY

Look at your bulletin's Mass list. Most churches put names next to the Mass. Those people are in need of prayers and most of the time parishes pray for people who have passed on. Whereas canonized saints we know are in Heaven, we make sure to do all we can for others who have passed, especially those in most need, by praying that they, too, are in Heaven.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us about the state of purification called purgatory (paragraph 1031). Nothing evil is allowed in Heaven. Jesus' sacrifice is all transforming, not just a "cover-up." What I mean by this is that we believe that Christ's sacrifice is not just making us appear to be pure, but when we really accept Him wholly we are transformed. We just need to receive Him.

As imperfect, fallen humans, we might likely not enter into eternal life completely spotless, and that is why His love continues to purify us in the state of purgatory. What's left of sin is taken away. Traditionally, people ask for 40 Masses to be said for a person who has passed. Forty biblically represents a long time, so people were aiming to help someone even if that person was said to be in Purgatory for a long time. The afterlife doesn't necessarily have a sense of time, so when someone speaks in manners of time, it's just us finite humans attempting to understand the afterlife. We should prepare ourselves to be rid of all sin as soon as possible through prayer, the sacraments given by God, and constant conversion. That way, we can enjoy the Kingdom of Heaven where we all belong "sooner"—so to speak.

Until then, we still strive to understand and visualize purgatory. For example, Dante's famous Divine Comedy is a poem about a character's journey through heaven, hell, and purgatory. If you want to understand Purgatory better, check out this article on it —

<https://catholic-link.org/purgatory-fr-mike-schmitz-explains/>

Don't just look at your bulletin's list of those in need of prayers or who have passed—actually, pray for them by name. This is a good opportunity to ask saints to pray for those in purgatory as well!

The overall goal for this year's Archbishop's Annual Appeal is $5 million. The financial resources generated through the Annual Appeal fund more than 30% of the archdiocesan budget (which helps our parishes to not see dramatic increases in our AAF assessment) and ensures that programs, personnel and services are available in all of our parishes and schools.

The financial contributions to date (as of Oct. 24th)

	AAA 2023-24 Goal	Participation Goal

SS PETER & PAUL—BUTTE— CYO & RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ACTIVITIES

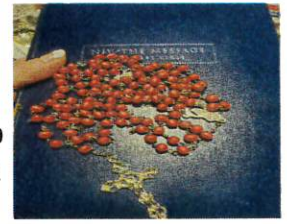

The CYO kids have been busy in Butte. On September 27th we helped Liewer garden pick pumpkins for the up coming pumpkin season. We filled several trailers including one for the Open House at the Butte Historical Museum. On October 4th, we hosted Spencer's CYO students for a Living Rosary at Ss. Peter and Paul Parish. On October 11th, we took our volunteering skills to the Butte Nursing Home where we engaged in active conversation ranging from farming to birthdays as we played several intense rounds of bingo. ~ Submitted by Britanie Brewster

The elementary RE group gathered together October 7th to lead the Rosary at Saints Peter and Paul. We used glow in the dark pebbles to help us keep our place on our Rosary sheets. We submitted 20 Rosaries to the Archdiocese Rosary total.

The High School youth and many adults from across Sacred Heart Parish of Boyd also gathered to Pray a Rosary for our Religious Vocations and favorable weather for the harvest. We submitted a total of 47 Rosaries prayed that night to the Archdiocese Rosary total.

The Elementary Religious Education group went downtown and enjoyed a fun afternoon painting pumpkins, crafting, coloring, winning prizes and even getting their faces painted. The Butte Community Club sponsored this event, and we as a group were able to go out and share with others on our community.

HOLT BOYD CATHOLIC

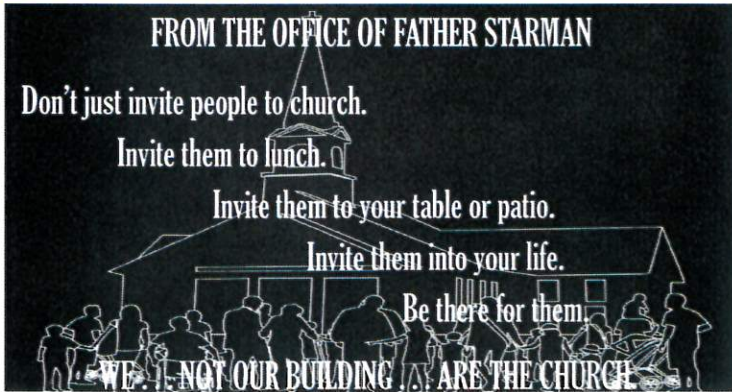

TROUBLE TREE

She hired a plumber to help her restore an old farmhouse, and he had just finished a rough first day on the job: a flat tire made him lose an hour of work, his electric drill quit, and his ancient one ton truck refused to start. While she drove him home, he sat in stony silence. On arriving, he invited her in to meet his family. As they walked toward the front door, he paused briefly at a small tree, touching the tips of the branches with both hands.

When opening the door, he underwent an amazing transformation. His tanned face was wreathed in smiles, and he hugged his two small children and gave his wife a kiss.

Afterward, he walked back to the car. They passed the tree, and her curiosity got the better of her. She asked him about what she had seen him do earlier. "Oh, that's my trouble tree," he replied. "I know I can't help having troubles on the job, but one thing's for sure; those troubles don't belong in the house with my wife and the children. So, I just hang them up on the tree every night when I come home and ask God to take care of them. Then in the morning, I pick them up again. Funny thing is," he smiled, "when I come out in the morning to pick 'em up, there aren't nearly as many as I remember hanging up the night before."

Thanksgiving Grace

God of Thanksgiving,
Gratitude opens our hearts to you.
You meet us in the struggle,
You meet us in the light,
You meet us in our suffering,
You meet us in our hope,
You surprise us in our neighbor,
You console us in the earth,
You whisper to us in the deepest desires of our heart.

In broken structures,
Abundant feasts,
Empty chairs,
Dried tears,
You are here.

In light and darkness,
Life and death,
You are here.

May this year
We give thanks
For your abiding presence,
Your unmeasured mercy,
Your transforming love.
Incarnate again.

God of Thanksgiving,
Gratitude opens our hearts to you
And your grace is here, within us all, at last.

Amen. May it be so.
