KC FREETHROW CONTEST

January 21st
Stuart High School Gym
Doors open at 12:30 p.m.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER STARMAN—

Dear Parishioners and Friends of the Catholic Parishes of Western Holt and Boyd Counties,

For those who live in the northern hemisphere, this weekend's celebration of divine light, glory and shining radiance comes in the darkest time of the year. Isaiah exults in God's brilliance, which bursts forth for the returning exiles, as Jerusalem rises up in splendor once again. The prophet envisions thick clouds covering all the other peoples. They are drawn to Israel, like a moth to a flame. Jerusalem will light the way, not only for its own inhabitants, but now it provides a welcome refuge for all others. All people from near and far come to the holy city bearing their priceless gifts: riches from the sea; caravans of camels bulging with treasures, gold, frankincense, and wealth beyond measure.

The gospel this weekend (Matt 2:1-12) tells of the fulfillment of this prophecy with a vivid story. The exotic visitors from the East, who come with their priceless gifts for the newborn Christ, signal the welcome of all peoples in God's embrace. The gift of Christ is to all, Jew and Gentile alike, as the author of the letter to the Ephesians also insists. This author, who writes in Paul's name, continues to assert, as did Paul, that God's grace, made known first to the Jews, is now revealed to all. Moreover, there is no distinction between those who were the first stewards of this mystery and those who now inter in. "The Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and co partners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel." There is no special privilege for those who arrived first.

Ad multos annos!

Fr. Bernard Starman
Pastor

Creator of the heavens, who led the Magi by a star
to worship the Christ-child:
guide and sustain us,
that we may find our journey's end
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

AMEN
