DISH CLOTH FUNDRAISER—Help support West Holt / Boyd County Evangelization with their DISH CLOTH FUNDRAISER. The Rural Women's Conference will be selling dish cloths for $2 each and will be available in the DOM Office or contact Jan Kunz @ 402.340.2303. Great gift idea!

JOB OPPORTUNITY—St. Boniface is seeking a friendly and organized individual to serve as a part-time secretary. Duties include general office management, preparing bulletins, maintaining records, managing supply inventory, and assisting staff and parishioners. Office experience and computer skills preferred. To apply, please send a resume to crsholes@archomaha.org or deliver to the parish office (now located in the former St. Boniface School building).

SPECIAL COLLECTION—NOVEMBER 15th & 16th, 2025—A special collection will be taken up for Catholic Charities on the weekend of November 15th and 16th. Envelopes can be found in your packet. This mission is to provide service to people in need, to advocate for justice in social structures, and to call the entire church and other people of good will to do the same.

KC COMMEMORATIVE MASS AND SOUP SUPPER—NOVEMBER 24th, 2025—There will be a special Commemorative Mass and supper for all KC members, their wives, and the widows of all deceased KC members on Monday, November 24th at 6:30 p.m. A soup supper will follow at 7:00 p.m. in the church basement. RSVP to Jeff Dvorak at 402-340-2185 by calling or texting or leave a message at his home number 924-3622.

DEDICATION OF ST. JOHN LATERAN

A Prayer for Our Veterans

Father, bless our veterans and all who serve our nation defending our freedom. For those who bravely gave their lives, grant them eternal rest. For those who are serving, give them courage. For those who served, we offer our gratitude. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK . . .

Dear Parishioners and Friends of the Catholic Parishes of Western Holt and Boyd Counties, This weekend's gospel (John 2:13-22), invites us into a deeper reflection on the meaning of church.

Most Catholics are probably unaware that the Basilica of Saint John Lateran, not Saint Peter's, is the seat of the pope. Historically, the church played a larger role than it does now, but is still one of the major basilicas in Rome. The original church building was dedicated in 324, on property given to the bishop of Rome by the Emperor Constantine. Additionally, the Lateran Palace was the official residence of the pope until the office moved to Avignon, France.

John's account of this gospel episode is located at the beginning of the gospel rather than near the end as in Synoptics. Jesus drives the money-changers and the merchants out of the temple area, saying they are making a marketplace out of the Father's house. Animal merchants and money-changers were necessary for temple function, providing the means for animal sacrifice. However, the temple ground was not to be the place for that – even in the outer Court of the Gentiles, where they had likely set up shop. To be holy is to be set apart. The temple, of all places, was to be dedicated to the worship of God, a space for all people, and the noisiness of the bartering crowds was an obstacle to prayer. Whether grand and ornate like the Lateran Basilica or intimate and humble, do our places of worship illuminate their function? Moreover, do we by our actions in these sacred places reflect the love of Christ in whose presence we stand?

Perhaps more importantly, Jesus's decisive action also ushers us beyond the temple itself. Following this shocking disturbance in the gospel scene, the Judeans want an answer from Jesus: "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus responds, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." As he often does Jesus speaks on a plane that his listeners are not expecting. Jesus, in fact, has offered a sign. Pointing beyond the temple, the place in which God dwells, Jesus offers his own body as the dwelling place of God. Likewise, by the gift of his body and blood as the Eucharist for us, Jesus calls forth and builds up the church, the Mystical Body of Christ. Jesus rises from the dead, and so does "rebuild the temple" in three days, but he also sends forth the Holy Spirit so that we ourselves might become temples of the living God.

The Second Vatican Council's Lumen Gentium reminds us, "The society structured with hierarchical organs and the Mystical Body of Christ are not to be considered as two realities, nor are the visible assembly and the spiritual community, nor the earthly church and church enriched with heavenly things; rather they form one complex reality which coalesces from a divine and human element." The church is neither simply a building nor a community of worshippers nor a collection of beliefs and truths but a mystery in the deepest sense—a mystery we as children of God are invited to receive and become in the gift of the Eucharist. Celebrating this dedication today, may we remember not only the sacredness of our places of worship but of our own sacredness as the church, the dwelling place of God.

Ad multos annos!

Pastor
